

Leverage the Opportunity!

- Take a look at your Safe School Plan
  - Review it with Students and Staff
  - Review it with Parents
  - Develop a drill that will allow everyone to practice their roles and responsibilities
  - Pretend you are from Missouri

The Great Southern California Shakeout

What will LAUSD be doing to prepare for

November 13, 2008?

In LAUSD

Beginning October 1

- School's Safety Committee will meet to review the Safe School Plan.
- Schools will review with teachers:
  - Safe School Plan
  - SEMS Assignments
  - Section 3100 of the Civil Code

In LAUSD

Beginning October 15

- Schools will review with parents:
  - School's Safe School Plan
  - Drill information
  - The Field Act

In LAUSD

Beginning October 15

- Schools will check their emergency supply cache:
  - 3 days of water
  - First Aid Supplies
  - Search and Rescue Supplies
  - Food supplies (in cafeteria)

In LAUSD

Beginning October 15

- Schools will check their communications equipment
  - School Radios
  - 3N information

In LAUSD
By November 1

- Parents will have a letter informing them about the drill and inviting them to attend.
- Teachers will have reviewed their assignment for emergencies.
- Emergency supplies will be current and all communications gear checked.

In LAUSD
On November 13

- All schools will practice their response to a major earthquake.
  - Drop, Cover and Hold!
  - Evacuation and activation of school emergency teams
  - We will use "Victim Tags" to test the system.
- All District radio and communication systems will be tested.

In LAUSD On November 13

- The District will open the EOC and conduct an drill based on the Golden Guardian scenario.
- The District will use Shakecast to simulate damage to schools for the drill.

Contact Information

Bob Spears
Director of Emergency Services
Los Angeles Unified School District
333 South Beaudry, 20th Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90017
213-241-3889
bob.spears@lausd.net

