RE: Great Oregon Shakeout

To Whom It May Concern:

The City of Port Orford supports the Great Oregon Shakeout. This earthquake drill is an annual event designed to increase public knowledge of the earthquake hazard facing all of us. A well trained citizenry will contribute to saving lives, and property in the event of the predicted Cascadia Subduction Zone earthquake and tsunami.

October 18, 2012, at 10:18 am is the date and time chosen for this event. The City of Port Orford strongly encourages all of its citizens, and all citizens in the Pacific Northwest, to participate in this event.

The Great Oregon Shakeout has a website located here: <http://www.shakeout.org/oregon/>
Over 13,000 people have registered on this website to participate. Join those 13,000 citizens in participating in the event, and in becoming educated about this unique hazard facing the Pacific Northwest.

Yours Truly,

Michael Murphy, City Administrator/Emergency Manager
City of Port Orford
