Here are a few suggestions for how all federal or national government departments and agencies can participate. More information is at ShakeOut.org/texas/howtoparticipate.

Plan Your Drill:
• Register at ShakeOut.org/texas/register to be counted as participating, get email updates, and more.
• Download a Drill Broadcast recording from ShakeOut.org/texas/drill/broadcast.
• Have a “Drop, Cover, and Hold On” drill at 10:20 a.m. on October 20. You can also practice other aspects of your emergency plan.
• Discuss what you learned and make improvements.

Get Prepared for Earthquakes:
• Secure building contents with seismic restraints.
• Encourage employees to prepare at home.
• Be sure there are fresh, accessible supplies to support your personnel while they manage an event.
• Provide CERT training for employees.

Share the ShakeOut:
• Encourage everyone to ask their friends, families, neighbors, businesses and non-profits to register.
• Include ShakeOut messaging in routine activities, and add a link to ShakeOut.org/texas from your web site.
• Find posters, flyers, and other materials for promoting the ShakeOut are at ShakeOut.org/texas/resources.
• Share photos and stories of your drill at ShakeOut.org/texas/share.

As a registered ShakeOut Participant you will:
• Learn what you can do to get prepared
• Be counted in the largest earthquake drill ever
• Receive ShakeOut news and other earthquake information
• Set an example that motivates others to participate
