Here are a few suggestions for what agriculture/livestock organizations can do to participate in the ShakeOut. Learn more at ShakeOut.org/washington/howtoparticipate.

Plan Your Drill:
• Register at ShakeOut.org/washington/register to be as participating, get email updates, and more.
• Download a Drill Broadcast recording from ShakeOut.org/washington/drill/broadcast.
• Have a “Drop, Cover, and Hold On” drill at 10:17 a.m. on October 17. You can also practice other aspects of your emergency plan.
• Discuss what you learned and make improvements.

Get Prepared for Earthquakes:
• Have a domestic animal and livestock emergency plan.
• Consider alternative power sources (e.g. generators) for dairy farms and indoor production systems.
• Know which paddocks to move livestock to keep them out of harm and secure items that may fall.
• Ensure you have adequate water and food and check regularly.

Share the ShakeOut:
• Encourage employees to ask their friends, families and neighbors to register.
• Ask colleagues at other businesses to participate.
• Posters, flyers, and other promotional materials at ShakeOut.org/washington/resources.
• Share photos and stories of your drill at Shakeout.org/washington/share.

Millions of people worldwide have participated in Great ShakeOut Earthquake Drills since 2008. The Great Washington ShakeOut is held on the third Thursday of October each year. Everyone can participate! Individuals, families, businesses, schools, colleges, government agencies and organizations are all invited to register.

As a registered ShakeOut Participant you will:
• Learn what you can do to get prepared
• Be counted in the largest earthquake drill ever
• Receive ShakeOut news and other earthquake information
• Set an example that motivates others to participate
